Wild Bloody Mary £7.50

Our vodka infused with foraged wild horseradish, mixed with tomato juice and spiced to perfection

Blackberry Fizz £8

A classic cocktail of Prosecco and brandy, with a dash of bitters. Wild twist: the brandy is infused with foraged Hertfordshire blackberries.

Woodruff and Apple £7

Vodka infused with sweet woodruff (a wild bedstraw with aromas of vanilla, cinnamon and mown hay), woodruff syrup and apple juice, shaken and served long over ice.

Liqueurs & Straight Shooters

£3.50 single or double up for £2

Enjoy over ice or as a straight shot

Sea Buckthorn & Rosemary Vodka

Sweet and sour, tangy orangey sea buckthorn berries mingle with the herbal warmth of rosemary. Inspired by fresh-mixed lemonade stands on the streets of St Petersburg.

Horseradish Vodka

Clear your sinuses with the fire and flavour of wild horseradish root, steeped in pure vodka.

Sweet Woodruff Vodka

A relative of Żubrówka's bison grass, woodruff has aromas of vanilla, cinnamon and sweet hay.

Medieval Forest Vodka

Forgotten herbs like mugwort, yarrow, wood avens and ale-hoof combine with birch and cherry bark for a bitter drink containing all the secrets of the forest.

Blackberry Brandy

A Foragers favourite – the subtleties of sweet wild blackberries are highlighted by this warming liqueur, perfect for fireside sipping.

Homemade Absinthe

Most modern Absinthe is a pale imitation – sweet and syrupy. This is the real deal. Aniseed topnotes of fennel and sweet cicely are undercut by the powerful, possibly mind-altering bitterness of foraged Grand Wormwood.

Sloe Gin

An all time classic of wild booze making. Sip its rich and intense purple fruitiness over ice, & imagine you're in an ancestral hunting lodge.
